Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, The South Dakota Department of Corrections is responsible for the supervision, custody, and care of more than 3,600 adult inmates, more than 2,800 parolees, and more than 700 juvenile offenders in placement and on aftercare; and,

Whereas, Correctional employees are committed to their mission of protecting the citizens of South Dakota by providing safe and secure facilities for juvenile and adult offenders committed to their custody by the courts, providing effective community supervision to offenders upon their release, and utilizing evidence-based practices to maximize opportunities for rehabilitation; and,

Whereas, Correctional employees perform their duties with pride, perseverance, and professionalism in a difficult and dangerous field; and,

Whereas, Correctional employees play a key role in the department's commitment to offender reentry by assisting inmates, parolees, and juvenile offenders in developing the necessary skills to truly change their lives and make a successful transition back into the community:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 6-12, 2012, as in South Dakota, and I urge all citizens to recognize and appreciate the efforts of the men and women who work in the corrections field.

CORRECTIONAL EMPLOYEES WEEK

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirteenth Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twelve.

Dennis Daugaard

Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Jason Gant

Jason M. Gant, Secretary of State